Pursuit of an 'Unparalleled Opportunity'
The American YMCA and Prisoner of War Diplomacy among the Central Power Nations during World War I, 1914-1923.
by Kenneth Steuer

Table of Contents

Introduction
Chapter 1"Evangelizing the World" Chapter 2The American YMCA Mobilizes Chapter 3The U.S. and POW Responsibilities Chapter 4American YMCA POW Diplomacy Chapter 5Association Diplomacy Extends Chapter 6American Secretaries in Germany Chapter 7Expanding WPA Work in Germany Chapter 8"Keeping Body and Soul Together" Chapter 9Operations in Austria-Hungary Chapter 10Phildius Relief Work in Bulgaria Chapter 11Political Prisoners, Labor Detachments Chapter 12The United States Enters the War Chapter 13The Arrival of Neutral Secretaries Chapter 14POWs in Germany Chapter 15Allied Relief in the Ottoman Empire Chapter 16Armistice and Restoration of Service Chapter 17Post-War WPA Operations Chapter 18Countering the Bolshevik Threat Chapter 19Conclusion
Glossary Maps

Appendix A

Prison Camps

Media Index >> Appendix A: Prison Camps >> Turkey >> Aziziah

Turkish Prision Camps

Aziziah

AZIZIAH (AL AZIZIYA): This prison camp was located in the Vilayet of Baghdad in northern Irak-Arabi. The city was situated on the north bank of the Tigris River, fifty miles west of Kut-al-Amara and fifty-five miles south of Baghdad. The Turks left 350 sick and wounded British and Indian prisoners of war at Aziziah as the remainder of the Kut garrison marched into captivity in Anatolia. The British recaptured Aziziah by March 1917.